

What's In My Bag //

Kate Walsh Actress

Best known for playing Dr. Addison Montgomery on ABC's hit television shows Grey's Anatomy and Private Practice, actress Kate Walsh has traded in her scrubs for some new roles on the big and small screen. This month, see her in Full Circle, a 10-episode drama series for DirectTV premiering October 9 that follows the intertwined lives of 11 people at a Los Angeles restaurant. You can also catch her in upcoming films Dermaphoria, Just Before I Go and Pool Guards. Here's a peek into her carryon. —Anya Britzius

TRAVEL UNIFORM: I like to look cute and comfortable. I have these Stella McCartney pants that are like grown-up sweats. I always bring a scarf because I get cold on planes. I have this Jenni Kayne black zip-up sweater that I always layer over a T-shirt.

IN-FLIGHT LISTENING: When I'm traveling, I like mellow music, such as Neil Young. I have this performance of his live at Massey Hall. I just love it.

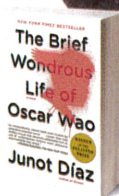

ESSENTIAL BEAUTY ITEMS: I've been using Kate Somerville skin-care products for many years. I love the Ex-foliKate exfoliating treatment and the Multi-Active Repair Lifting and Lineless Cream. They are light and hydrating. I also bring my Clarisonic skin brush wherever I go!

FAVORITE DESTINATIONS: My last big trip was to Spain and Austria. It was my first time to Seville and Barcelona, and it was incredible! I also love the Mediterranean—Greece and Italy. From L.A., it's easy to head down to Mexico.

IN-FLIGHT READING: I'm currently reading The Brief Wondrous Life of Oscar Wao by Junot Diaz.

Items she packs to remind her of home: A little bottle of my fragrance, Boyfriend. Pictures of my pets on my iPhone. I have two cats and two dogs.

Luggage of Choice: If it's a big trip, I take basic black Tumi luggage that I check. If it's a shorter trip, I have a Louis Vuitton roller bag and duffel that I carry on.

Favorite airport: London Heathrow Airport. It has some great shopping.

Bucket List //

Extreme Elevators

1 Bailing Elevator

ZHANGJIAJIE, CHINA

This glass-walled lift, known as the Hundred Dragons Elevator, takes you high above China's Hunan Province for magnificent views of Zhangjiajie National Forest Park.

2 AquaDom

BERLIN, GERMANY

The lobby of Berlin's Radisson Blu hotel houses the world's largest cylindrical aquarium. The two-story elevator ride takes you to the middle of an underwater world home to 1,500 tropical fish.

3 Hammetschwand Lift

LUCERNE, SWITZERLAND

Since 1905, passengers have been riding to the summit of Mount Bürgenstock in the highest outdoor lift in Europe. But be sure to visit the nearly 500-foot elevator in warm weather—it's out of commission during winter.

4 Gateway Arch

ST. LOUIS, MISSOURI

This 630-foot structure has been dazzling visitors to St. Louis for nearly five decades. It takes four minutes in an enclosed tram to reach the top, where you can see as far as 30 miles in either direction into Illinois and Missouri.

5 SkyView

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

The glass gondola ride takes you to the top of the world's largest spherical building, the Ericsson Globe, for killer views of Stockholm.

PHOTOS: GREGG DECURE/WIREIMAGE (WALSH); FIONA DUNN/DIGITAL BILDERGUT (GMBH); ALAMY (AQUADOM); PHOTOGRAPHY HEATHROW.COM (HEATHROW); MICHAEL HENDRICKSON (PERFUME); IMAGE COURTESY OF LOUIS VUITTON (BAG).